MISSIONARIES TO HONDURAS

JANUARY 2024

PRAYER UPDATE

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We want to thank you for your care and concern for us here in Honduras. We have loved getting your encouraging emails, letting us know that you are praying for us!

Youth Camp

Thank you for praying for the trip our youth took to a Christian camp here in Honduras. They were able to attend various preaching sessions, and they were also able to fellowship with other Christian young people from around the country. During the week, there was a competition among four teams, representing four different chocolates. The Twix team was very excited to win!

Trip to the Caves

The Honduran school year calendar runs from early February to mid-November. Because the students were about to return to classes, we decided to rent a bus last month and take the church members to the Caves of Talgua in Catacamas, a larger town further east in the department of Olancho. During our time there, we had a Bible lesson on Psalm 57, one of the Psalms David wrote while hiding from Saul in a cave. The application was that we can worship God even in the most dire situations.

A fun fact about the caves is that they are called "The Caves of the Glowing Skulls." In one high chamber that is not open to the public yet, archaeologists have found skeletal remains which date back to 700 BC (or even older). The cave got its nickname because the bones shine due to being covered in calcite deposits.

Ladies' Meeting With Rachel's pregnancy and the birth of little Chloe, we had taken a break from the bimonthly ladies meetings, but we are excited to be starting that up again. This past month we were encouraged by a large group showing up to hear a Bible lesson on slander from Titus 2 as well as enjoy some fellowship with food and games. In February, we will hold a men's meeting, and in March, we have invited another missionary lady to speak to the women on the importance of daily devotions.

Discipleship: Daniel has finished preaching his Proverbs series on Wednesdays, and this next upcoming week, we plan to start a midweek discipleship course with both the men and the women. The first few weeks will cover the basic topics of reading the Bible, praying, church attendance, and evangelism. One of our goals for this study is to help develop the habit of daily Bible reading in everyone who attends. Please pray that the members would be faithful to the study, begin or continue daily time with God, and grow in their love for His Word.

Church Van Update: We are so grateful to everyone who prayed and gave for our church van fund. We have now raised the full amount and ask for prayer that we find a reliable van soon. Thank you again!
